Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-19, drawn to a fruit coring device, classified in class 30, subclass 316.
 - II. Claim 20, drawn to a method of making a fruit coring device, classified in class 83, subclass 13.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because:

- a. Inventions II and I are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case (1) applies because the process as claimed can be used to make other materially different product such as a die cutter for cutting food items; i.e., cheese. In addition, the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process such as casting into a single metal piece or machining a metal piece.

2. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

3. Upon election of invention I above, applicant is required to further elect one of the following species as set forth below.

4. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species I. (Figs. 2-4);

Species II. (Fig. 5);
Species III. (Fig. 6);
Species VI. (Figs. 7 and 7A);
Species V. (Figs. 8-8B);
Species VI. (Figs. 9 and 9A);
Species VII. (Fig. 10);
Species VIII. (Fig. 11);
Species IX. (Figs. 12 and 12A);
Species X. (Fig. 12B);
Species XI. (Fig. 12C);
Species XII. (Fig. 13);
Species XIII. (Fig. 14);
Species XIV. (Fig. 15);
Species XV. (Figs. 16 and 16A);
Species XVI. (Fig. 17);
Species XVII. (Fig. 18);
Species XVIII. (Fig. 19);
Species XIX. (Fig. 20);
Species XX. (Figs. 21 and 21A); and
Species XX1. (Fig. 21B).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, no claim is generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species.

MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR. 1.143).
